THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

THE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

September 26, 1953

Dear Mr. Newson:

Thank you very much for your note of September twenty-first enclosing copy of your letter to Director Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The circumstances you relate do seem a little unnecessary and I am sure that Mr. Dulles will have the matter properly looked into in order to make any corrections that may be necessary.

Sincerely,

Mr. Herschel D. Newson

Mr. Sherman Adams
Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Adams:

Although I am uncertain as to whether it is necessary to load your desk with this particular matter, I am taking the liberty of providing you with a copy of our letter to the Director of Central Intelligence, Allan Dulles, in the event your secretarial staff deems it necessary for you to know of its content.

Respectfully yours,

Herschel D. Newsom, Master
